

Queen's Nurse Annual Meeting

'Bringing healthcare to the whole community'

Monday 25 March 2023

9.30am - 4pm - via Zoom

#ExtraordinaryQNs

Programme

9.30am - 10am

Welcome - Update from the QNI

Dr Crystal Oldman CBE, QN, RN, RHV Chief Executive, The QNI
 Professor John Unsworth OBE, Chair of Council, The QNI

10am - 10.40am

The Power of Words

Allyson Kent QN in conversation with Libby Pearson, Playwright

10.40 am -11.25am

The Hidden people we serve... Inequalities in Health

Lisa Gavin, Clinical Service Manager, Gypsy, Roma Traveller & Inclusion Health Children and Family Health Surrey

11.25am -11.45am - Break

11.45am - 12.30pm

The Margaret Olivia Heyes Annual Queen's Nurse Lecture - Breaking Barriers and Bridging Health Disparities: Enhancing Cervical Screening Uptake and Expanding Access for Diverse Patient Populations

Julie Roye RN RM QN, Head of Nursing, East London Foundation Trust

12.30pm - 1.30pm - Lunch break

1.30pm - 2.15pm

What does any new government need to focus on to better support the health of our population?

Lord Victor Adebowale in conversation with Professor John Unsworth OBE, Chair of Council, The QNI

2.15pm - 3.15pm

Wes Streeting, Shadow Secretary of State for Health and Social Care in conversation with Dr Crystal Oldman CBE, QN, RN, RHV Chief Executive, The QNI

3.15pm - 4pm

Queen's Nurses and the National Garden Scheme

George Plumptre, NGS Chief Executive
 Simon Littlefield and Corrie Llewellyn, Elsie Wagg Project Leads in conversation with Amanda Young, Programme Director, The QNI

4pm

Close

Dr Crystal Oldman CBE, QN, RN, RHV Chief Executive, The QNI
 Professor John Unsworth OBE, Chair of Council, The QNI

